In the afternoon the aweepstakes for fancy matched horses came off. For this the following entiries were made, Gus Artsman and Lady Moreland, by J. Woodmansie, of Wheeling; Jennie and Queen, by J. Buller, of Pittsburgh; Wild Wagoner and Prince, by J. Stephens, of Marietta. The first two of the above named teams were withdrawn before the race commenced, leaving only the last two named as contestants. The race was won by Hada and Joe Currey, in the first three heats. The time made by the winning team was as follows: 1st heat 22854; 2d heat 251; 3d heat 257. The premiums were respectively $75 and $25.

Much interest was manifested in the sweepstakes races—a great deal of better opportunity is safforded than this to those wishing to purchase. For a while the excitement ran quite high, and it required much labor on the part of marshals to preserve quiet among the spectators.

In the morning thorough-bred stallons were exhibited and put around the safe of hospital property which takes place at the Atheneum today.

There are a number of iron bedsteads,

In the morning thorough-bred stallions were exhibited, and put around the course to show their speed. The entries were "Kentucky," by Dr. Estep, and "Ten Broeck," by Dr. Hancher,—The former was pronounced decidedly the best animal of the two.

Between intervals of sweepstakes, animals were examined in Class B and C.

To-day will be a most interesting one probably the best of the fair. Three weepstakes will take place to-day, as SERIOUS ACUDESY—A BOY RAILY INJURED.—Yesterday afternoon, during the racing at the fair grounds, Honry Oliver, a son of Mr. Tobias Oliver, of Bellair, Ohio, fell from the porth side of the east end of the Bridgeport bridge and was very badly injured. He was sitting on the railing watching the racing and lost his balance and fell over the side, a distance of about 50 or 60 feet, lighting among the rocks below. He was brought to the Union House in our city, Dr. Frissell was called in, and his injuries received prompt and careful attention. His left thigh and left arm were broken, and his left wrist.

"Poot."—The city is full of horse mes, and "horse talk" is all the rage at the hotels and on the street corners. In the McClure bar-room nightly an animated scene is presented at pool. The choice of horses sells at various prices, varying from $5 up. They are all told out, and the man who secures the winning horse is entitled to all the Very frequently the bidding is quite animated. This a small way of betting blind, and is growing quite popular among horse men.

KNOCKED DOWN AND ROBBED.—Mr. Wm. N. Johnson, lately an army correspondent, was knocked down near the upper end of the market house on Tuesday night about 12 o'clock, and robbed of about $140 in money and a a pair of Deringer pistois. One of the robbers has been arrested, and it is thought the other will be apprehended. Mr. Johnson received a very severe cut on the head:
